

CIRCLE THE WHOLE TONES

When finished, play all the whole tones on your ukulele!

Whole tones and semitones are easiest to see on a piano!

When you move from one white key to the very next one and there is a black key between them, that's a whole tone. It's the same as moving up two frets on your ukulele.

Circle the measures where the notes are one whole tone apart.

